Dear Sir:

On July 21, 2009, the undersigned was contacted by the Examiner regarding the subject application (the application has been allowed and is ready for publication). The Examiner indicated that page 9 of the application was improperly scanned by the USPTO, resulting in one side of the page being partially cut off, and requested that page 9 be resubmitted so that the application can be published.

Included with this letter is a scan of page 9 of the application as filed. Page 9 contains no new matter.

If you have any questions regarding the above, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

/Kenneth W. Fafrak/
